1. Tentative Plan

2. Customer demand for this OS is declining or is expected to decline. Keysight EEsof EDA recommends customers upgrade to another supported OS.

3. This will be the last release for this OS. Not recommended for new designs. Keysight EEsof EDA support for this operating systems will be discontinued at the end of the calendar year.

4. 32 bit support ends for all releases that ship after June 2012.

5. Windows 8: Although not officially supported for this ADS release, we have performed automated regression testing and have found no platform specific issues related to Windows 8.

6. Windows 32-bit is not supported for ADS releases shipping after ADS 2014.01

7. Solaris 10 License Server support will end for releases shipping after December 2016
